

Alan Bowler

Sadly passed away 10th August 2007 after a short illness aged 53.

From the steel city of Sheffield Alan's CV read like this:

Catering Manager then General Manager for Mecca Leisure

Special Events Manager (Telford) for Oakengates Theatre and Parks.

Entertainment Development Manager for Pontins UK Head Office

Managing Sales Director - Property, Boat Brokerage etc in Tenerife

Cricket Coach (NCA) Safety and Health (IOSA) Entertainment and Art (IEAM)

Drama and Pantomime Critic for the Stage and Television Newspaper etc etc

If I had written his CV it would have read

Alan BowlerClever Dick

They say nobody likes a clever dick, well I liked this one immensely. I remember him for his humour, his great big smile and also with enormous pride that he considered me to be his friend.
