

Andrew Sharpe

April '65 began life in Essex also lived and worked in Cornwall, Yorkshire and currently Cambridgeshire with his wife Emma and four children.

Most of Andrew's working life has been in the retail sector honing his people skills whilst gaining a broad knowledge base.

Twelve years with Game Stores Group Ltd which included positions as a European Regional Manager based in Sweden and ultimately becoming Recruitment Manager for the UK and Eire.

With a keen eye for professionalism, seeks out the 'X Factor' in employees often overlooked by others. Discovering these gems brings further job satisfaction to what he describes as an enjoyable and fulfilling occupation.

Plays football, golf and goes fishing, enjoys cooking but not washing up and family time is precious time.