

Barbara Tutt

Barbara, originally from Essex where she raised her two children. With a background in finance, previously employed by Stockbrokers and Accountants, has owned and managed her own successful retail business.

Relocated to the north of England eight years ago working as a partner in a thriving property investment company.

A keen gardener who enjoys reading and is an excellent cook. What does the future hold for Barbara? “I love to travel and want to explore unusual locations, visit new countries and spend lots of time with my young grandsons”.