

Jack Sharpe

Yorkshire man, moved to Dagenham aged 20 working in the motor car industry in various administration roles, simultaneously pursuing a semi professional career as a footballer.

At 29 started an Entertainments Agency, good friend and former opponent Charlie Williams was the first act booked by Jack.

Rapidly becoming a theatre promoter at all the major resorts, grossing over 3 million pounds in nationwide tours with Showstoppers. Time of our Lives and Tribute to Hollywood.

Returned to Yorkshire, now runs a successful Property Investment Company with partner Barbara. They are currently building apartments near Bulgaria's Sunny Beach resort.

In his 'spare time' he's busy supplying entertainers for P & O, Cunard, Fred Olsen and other major cruise lines.

A non smoking, non drinking workaholic Jack now keeps himself fitwatching Barbara mow the lawn.
