

Louise Smith

Louise, the youngest of our team, attended Loughborough University to study International Business with a year at l'Universite de Rennes becoming fluent in French.

Having worked extensively abroad she took a year off to tour Australia. Now based in Yorkshire and enjoying the local culture.

An excellent skier so the dizzy heights of Super Troopers' ever increasing client base should not faze her.

A very personable young lady with a very bright future..